

International Networking Event for MAINSTREAMING PEACE EDUCATION

24th October 2016, Brighton, UK

An Introduction to the Event

This event is the official international launch of an innovative competence framework with educational guidelines for youth workers, educators and leaders to further their understanding of peace education in a more holistic, multidisciplinary and transformative way.

The main aims are:

- to share and disseminate the Mainstreaming Peace Education: Competence Framework and Educational Guidelines (MPE CF & EG)
- to gather active people who consider themselves to be cultivating a culture of peace
- to provide an interactive platform for networking opportunities

Project Background

MPE CF & EG is an Erasmus+ KA2 Strategic Partnership in the field of Youth between NGOs from the UK, the Netherlands, Germany, Latvia and Turkey.

The project responds to needs of young people and youth organisations working with non-formal education in the youth sector. Project objectives:

- Developing a Peace Education Competence Framework including knowledge, skills and attitudes and requiring evaluation indicators, assessment methods as well as educational guidelines for achieving the competences
- Increasing the recognition of peace education by linking the Framework with the Youthpass and Europass certification system
- Increasing the quality of peace education activities in the youth sector
