Training Course
Tackling Racism and Radicalization
11th - 15th of November 2018
Information Pack

Summary

This Training Course will bring together professionals, youth workers and organisations invested in tackling racism and radicalization. Through a series of lectures, activities and events the participants will become better agents of social change, situated within a stronger network.

Aim

This Training Course aims to empower participants to become active in the fight against Racism & Radicalization. By the end of the course, the participants will not only have fostered greater tolerance but have become better agents to enact social change. Participants will leave with stronger relationships with other European organisations creating the potential for future projects.

Objectives

- Develop participants competence to speak publicly on issues regarding racism and radicalization
- To provide participants with the skills and tools needed to tackle racism and radicalization.
- To create international cooperation between professionals from numerous countries
- To share best practice in order to heighten the quality of anti-racism and anti-radicalization initiatives.

How will the aims and objectives be achieved?

Over the course of 5 Days. The participants will debate, brainstorm, discuss, and analyse amongst themselves. Their experience will be complemented with excursions, videos, and meetings with other organisations who are also involved in work surrounding racism and radicalization. This will provide an ideal environment for experience sharing and the opportunity to find future partners.
